The guidelines and principles that should govern Steppe’s business conduct are set out in Steppe’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which can be accessed on Steppe’s website at www.steppegold.com. As part of Steppe’s commitment to ethical and responsible business conduct, Steppe is committed to seeking to maintain accountability of accounting, internal controls and auditing processes (“financial matters”). It is also Steppe’s policy to seek to ensure compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements relating to Steppe’s business in all material respects. Steppe expects all of its officers, directors and employees to participate actively in seeking to maintain this standard. As used herein, “Steppe” and the “Company” means Steppe and its affiliates, as the context requires.

The purpose of this Whistleblower Policy (the “Policy”) is to provide officers, directors, employees and consultants (“Representatives”) with a process for disclosing complaints or concerns regarding financial matters. This Policy describes how and where to submit a complaint or concern, who deals with complaints and how complaints are expected to be handled, processed and documented. 2.1 Reporting Concerns

The Company has an open-door policy and invites all Representatives to share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. Any person with a concern regarding a financial matter relating to Steppe may submit their concern to the Head of Internal Audit Department of Steppe (the “Head of Internal Audit”) in writing, by telephone or email as follows:

2.2 Anonymity and Confidentiality

The Company, including all persons designated to handle complaints under this Policy, will seek to treat all communications as confidential to the fullest extent permitted under law and to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation. The Company has a procedure for the submission of confidential, anonymous complaints concerning questionable accounting or auditing matters to the Audit Committee. All such complaints should be communicated in writing to the Head of Internal Audit at the address set forth in section 2.1 of this Policy. 4. Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a complaint under this Policy must be acting in good faith and have an honest belief that the complaint is well-founded, including a reasonable factual or other basis. Any complaints based on allegations that are without basis cannot be substantiated, or that are proven to be intentionally misleading or malicious will be viewed as a serious offense.

5. Retention of Records

The Audit Committee shall retain all records relating to any financial matter or report of a retaliatory act and to the investigation of any such report for a period judged to be appropriate based upon the merits of the submission. The types of records to be retained by the Audit Committee shall include records of all steps taken in connection with the investigation and the results of any such investigation.

6. Complaints from Third Parties

Securities laws require the Company to establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding financial matters. This may include complaints that are received from third parties. Accordingly, each representative should forward any complaint regarding such matters received from a third party (including the Company’s independent auditor) to the Audit Committee Chair.

The Audit Committee Chair should discuss such complaints at regularly scheduled meetings of the Audit Committee (unless they are unfounded or unless the materiality of the complaint requires earlier action).

The Board of Directors may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms of this Policy, either prospectively or retrospectively. This Policy is not intended to give rise to civil liability on the part of the Company or its directors or officers to shareholders, security holders, customers, suppliers, competitors, employees or other persons, or to any other liability whatsoever on their part.

7. Review of Policy

The Audit Committee will review and evaluate this Policy on an annual basis to determine whether the Policy is effective in providing a confidential and anonymous procedure to report violations or complaints regarding Legal or financial matters.
